

Parts of Speech

Read the following sentences. Then, on the lines below, select and write the correct sentence for each mathematical formula.

1. Neither Thomas nor William could see the serious erroe.
2. Can you bake a cherry pie?
3. Marta, Jamal, and Terry took a ride.
4. The boy likes that girl.
5. He looks nice in a suit.
6. They are really good to us.
7. Men, women, children, and babies usually like chocolate.
8. She is quietly playing in the yard.
9. Wow! Whose car is that?
10. Solomon worked and played.
11. I work well under the pressure.
12. Come here or I will leave.
13. Joel and Cindy were eating the tasty pizza.
14. Janell and Gina were working.
15. We waited but he never came.

1. article + noun + verb + demonstrative pronoun + noun
2. personal pronoun + helping verb + adverb + verb + preposition + article + noun
3. personal pronoun + linking verb + adverb + adjective + preposition + personal pronoun
4. proper noun x 2 + conjunction + proper noun + verb + article + noun
5. interjection + interrogative pronoun + noun + linking verb + demonstrative pronoun
6. helping verb + pronoun + preposition + verb + article + adjective + noun - preposition
7. 9 nouns ÷ 3 + conjunction + noun + adverb + verb + noun
8. pronoun + verb + adverb + preposition + article + noun
9. pronoun + verb + adjective + preposition + article + noun
10. 2 x subject + predicate
11. subject ÷ 2 x predicate

12. independent clause + conjunction + independent clause

13. correlative conjunction + subject x 2 + predicate + article + modifier + object

14. subject + conjunction + subject + predicate + article + adjective + object

15. imperative sentence + conjunction + declarative sentence

Define the following vocabulary words.

Conjunction –

Article –

Preposition –

Adjective –

Verb –

Noun –

Adverb –

Pronoun –