

DAILY Oral Language

Week 3

PROOFREADING SENTENCES

a. since they may of drank the orange juice, but we didnt touch the fruit punch.

b. jamel dont want nothing returned but newsweek and people, the 2 magazines that he give to them students.

a. shira announced heatedly the better of them three runners didnt even place in that there marathon!

b. the oil burner bursted during the morning during the afternoon, mom founded a plumber to repair them.

a. the man who was the one wearing the blue workshirt should of brung his wife and child with he.

b. the australian aborigine have knowed for a long time what it means to be persecuted, dont you think?

a. the spirit of st. louis was the plane whom charles lindbergh flies in across the atlantic.

b. the future of the internet is the name of a article in this Computer magazine, do you want to read them?

a. 38 customers should of did the following, examined the merchandise, returned it, and they should of wrote a letter of complaint.

b. dad said you could of raise the window for more air or you could of open the door for more air.

Correct on Thursday

Building Proofreading Skills in Spelling

Spelling

ACTIVITY: Proofread each sentence carefully and circle the misspelled words. Then write the correct spelling on the blanks provided. You may not need all of the blanks.

Sample:

At the delicatesen they served delicious ham sandwiches.

delicatessen

1. The Atlanta Braves' uniforms have a red tomahwak on the front.
2. On this particuler evening, we went to the nearby restaurant to eat steak and potatoes.
3. The old woman beleived that the pathetic begger was truly in desperate need.
4. The county ambulence raced quickly to the tragic scene of the traffic accidant.
5. One rhinoceros was slautered for his valuable horn.
6. When the two old friends met, they sat and began to reminise about their childhood.
7. The magnifisence of the sunset was indescribable.
8. The temperature in the Artic was extremely friggid all year long.
9. I wonder if that animal I saw in the woods was a racoon or an opossum.
10. Is a canteloup considered a vegatable or a fruit?
11. The clever theives were thorough when they robbed the house.
12. Ashley and her freind finally decided to go to the movies.

tomahawk

particular

believed

beggar

ambulance

accident

slaughtered

reminisce

magnificence

frigid

raccoon

cantaloupe

vegetable

thieves

thorough

friend

finally

Name _____