

DAILY Oral Language

PROOFREADING SENTENCES

a. dr. torres she called at 4:05 AM, vicky said, and tells me about the fire at the oceanview motel on sunset boulevard.

b. no mr. soto dont have those magazines that this here class needs.

a. sarah and me choosed these here activities at arts camp: sculpting, to setlpt dancing, sing, and to compose. singing, composing

b. the british ocean liner lusitania sunk in the atlantic ocean on may 7, 1915, on a voyage from new york to liverpool.

a. ^{we} us students have began practicing "tomorrow" the better song on this here cassette, for the 24th contemporary music festival. twenty-fourth

b. ^{since} last summer grandfather growed ^{too} two many peaches he gived some to father to can.

a. we havent took ^{& taken any} no videos to ridgewood middle school for three years, or so give or take a few weeks. about

b. after the reading prof. diaz introduced me and sam to sharon olds, whose a poet she told us about her long poem the race. who

a. first, he asked to ^{whom} who i was e-mailing, second, he wanted to know who had rode a Motorcycle down the alley. ridden

b. watch out for the newly planted seeds in the garden, mom shouted, or youll get mulch on youre shoes. your