

Name _____ Date _____

Directions: Choose the sentence with no errors.

-
1. (A) If I had took the route through town, there's no way I could have gotten lost.
(B) If I had taken the route through town, there's no way I could of gotten lost.
(C) If I had taken the route through town, there's no way I could have gotten lost.
(D) If I had taken the route through town, theirs no way I could have gotten lost.
-
2. (A) Remember to buy some milk, but make sure it's nonfat.
(B) Remember too buy some milk, but make sure it's nonfat.
(C) Remember to buy some milk but make sure it's nonfat.
(D) Remember to buy some milk but, make sure it's nonfat.
-
3. (A) My Guatemalan cousin has written me 3 times this year.
(B) My guatemalan cousin has written me three times this year.
(C) My Guatemalan cousin has wrote me three times this year.
(D) My Guatemalan cousin has written me three times this year.
-
4. (A) To share the work fairly, we had to divide the reading equally between the six of us.
(B) To share the work fairly, we had to divide the reading equally among the six of us.
(C) To share the work fairly, we had to divide the reading equally among the 6 of us.
(D) To share the work fairly; we had to divide the reading equally among the six of us.
-
5. (A) Tom he got too many C's on his report card, his mom said.
(B) Tom got too many C's on his report card, his mom said.
(C) Tom got to many C's on his report card, his mom said.
(D) Tom got too many C's on his report card, his mom said.

-
6. (A) Kathy baby-sat for six hours without a break then she went to begin her job at the new fast-food restaurant.
(B) Kathy baby-sat for six hours without a break. Then she went to begun her job at the new fast-food restaurant.
(C) Kathy baby-sat for six hours without a break. Then she went to begin her job at the new fast-food restaurant.
(D) Kathy baby-sat for six hours without a break. Then she went to begin her job at the new fast food restaurant.
-
7. (A) It's too easy to say no one ever gets a perfect score.
(B) Its too easy to say no one ever gets a perfect score.
(C) It's too easy to say no one never gets a perfect score.
(D) It's to easy to say no one ever gets a perfect score.
-
8. (A) Our church group of seven families are going to the Japanese festival at the town's new multi-cultural building.
(B) Our church group of seven families is going to the Japanese festival at the town's new multi-cultural building.
(C) Our church group of seven families is going to the japanese festival at the town's new multi-cultural building.
(D) Our church group of seven families is going to the Japanese festival at the towns' new multi-cultural building.
-
9. (A) Two-fifths of the class had written the wrong answer.
(B) Two fifths of the class had written the wrong answer.
(C) To-fifths of the class had written the wrong answer.
(D) Two-fifths of the class had wrote the wrong answer.
-
10. (A) On rainy days I lay on my bed and write while I hear the rain.
(B) On rainy days I lie on my bed and right as I hear the rain.
(C) On rainy days I lie on my bed and write as I here the rain.
(D) On rainy days I lie on my bed and write as I hear the rain.