

MLA Style Practice

Title page practice

1. You are doing an essay on herbal remedies used by the Blackfoot tribe. Your instructor is Ms. Mariah McLaughlin. She teaches a class called herbal pharmacology. The date is 10/3/06.

2. Date: 12 Dec 07. Teacher: Mr. Ichabod Crane. Class: Comm Arts. Research paper title: Factual Origins of the Legend of Sleepy Hollow.

Citations practice

1. Book called Plains Indians Medicinal Plants. It was published in 1986 by HP Harcourt in Chicago.

2. Another source used was an encyclopedia called New World. The article is called Native American Medicine. It was written by Edmond Fitzgerald. The year of publication was 1995.

3. An article named Spooky Dooky was found in Time magazine on pages 22-24. The author is John Brown. The date is January 29, 1999.

4. The internet yielded two sources for you. The first was found at <http://www.geocities.com/Athens>. The article is "Pumpkin Heads." The magazine is Myths and Legends of the United States. The author is Dan Stevens. He wrote it for the October 31st issue in 1999. You accessed it on May 3, 2000.

5. The 2nd internet source came from a newspaper article titled, If It Smells Bad, It's Medicine. The newspaper's name is The Beargrass Journal. The URL is <http://www.primitivemeds.edu/poison>. It was published June 5, 1987. You accessed on April 28, 2000.

6. You have a CD-ROM titled Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia. It's for a Mac and is the 1997 edition. It was published by Grolier Electronic Publishing in 1997 in Danbury, Connecticut. You used it to look up information about "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." The article was written by Jack O'Lantern. The name of the article is Who's Afraid of Pumpkin Head?